WASHINGTON COLUMBIA VALLEY RIESLING

Appellation: Columbia Valley, Washington, U.S.A.

Style: The Columbia Valley produces many prestigious wines from their world class Riesling grapes. Delicate yet complex, Rieslings grown here offer pronounced ripeness while retaining acidity, showing fantastic floral aromas and flavours of peach and apricot, while still maintaining a crisp freshness. This vivid fruitiness is enhanced by Brew King's unique new süsse-reserve finishing pack, making this Riesling a unique and proud addition to our Estate Series line.

Conditions at harvest: TA 5.75 g/L, 20.5° Brix, pH 3.50.

Similar Styles: Gewürztraminer, Johannisberg Riesling.

Food pairings: Chicken with light sauces, shellfish, pasta with cream sauce, Asian noodle dishes, shrimp salad, steamed vegetables, chowders, delicate broiled fish (sole, snapper, etc.).

Sweetness code: 1 (Off-Dry).

Alcohol by Volume: 11.5 – 12.0%

Oak: None.

Aging: Allows for early consumption, though aromas and flavours are more striking upon extended aging.

Don't miss out on this sublime Riesling from one of the world's great wine producing regions! With a stunning balance of ripe fruit and crisp acidity, this is one white wine that delivers on all fronts.
