LODI OLD VINES ZINFANDEL

Appellation: Lodi, Central Valley, California, United States.

Style: The famous thick, gnarled and twisted old Zinfandel vines of Lodi in California's Central Valley contribute to intense concentrated flavours in the grapes. The wine is deep and rich, with bold, zesty aromas and ripe berry fruits on the tongue. Robust and exciting, it bursts with a spiciness that is met head on by the premium French oak.

Conditions at harvest: T.A. 6.3 g/l, 23.0° Brix, pH 3.38.

Similar Styles: Cabernet Sauvignon, Petite Sirah, Australian Cabernet/Shiraz, Luna Rossa™.

Food pairings: Steak and beef dishes, spicy ribs, pasta with meat sauce dishes, hard cheeses.

Sweetness code: 0 (Dry).

Alcohol by Volume: 13%.

Oak: Premium French oak.

Aging: Recommended aging of over 4 months before consumption to mellow the tannins and smooth out the flavours.

From the home of Mondavi's famous Lodi-Woodbridge winery comes this rich, spicy red wine of outstanding complexity – the perfect introductory showcase for the red wines of this series.
